DEDICATION

What can be said about Mr. Fraser that would do this legend justice? A man who made chemistry a class students could smile about, is truly a genius. In Mr. Fraser's job, teaching extended far outside the classroom. Whether it was extra help or just chatting about life, Mr. Fraser was always available.

Perhaps the most memorable thing about Mr. Fraser was the way he dealt with problems in the classroom. If someone started to doze off in class, Mr. Fraser did not hesitate to pull out an old fire extinguisher and give that person a little wake up call. He had a knack for putting out fires before they became a big problem. Who could forget the daily weather checks on Mr. Fraser's favorite web site? His cheerful laugh, which was heard quite frequently, always brightened up his students' day. Whenever we look back to our time at GHS, we will remember that fateful day when a certain teacher misunderstood the bell schedule and dismissed his class early.

Mr. Fraser has become an icon at Georgetown High, and he will be missed by the Class of 2000. We loved our time with him, and only hope that others will have the chance to experience the wonder that is Mal Fraser.

This is why we dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Fraser.

The Class of 2000

Never will the Class of 2000 forget Priv and Brach. From endless fundraisers to relay races, they have been there for us. Their hard work and dedication have guided our class through high school. Just look around our class, and you will see that they gave us advice on everything from proms to how to prepare ourselves for the next step in life.

As we graduate from Georgetown High School we will all take a little bit of Priv and Brach with us.

Thank you!

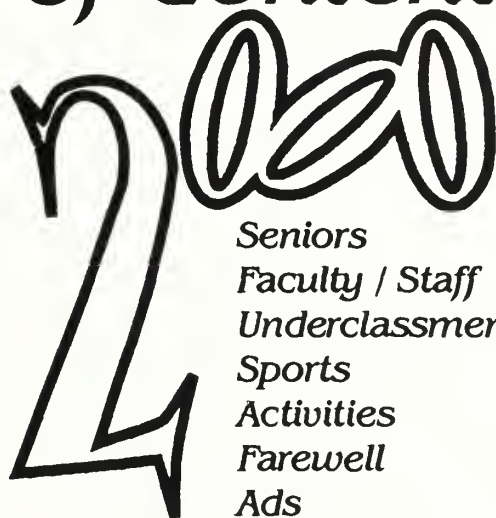

The Class of 2000

Nelson A. Alba Jr.
"Nellie, little Nellie, Nelsito"

I want to thank Georgetown for accepting me as a choice student. I've had the best experiences of my life and education in Georgetown. I will miss the school very dearly. Now I would like to thank J.A. for always being a good listener when I was feeling down and helping me when I needed to study. Also for the support you have always given me. J.H., B.F.C., and ErP. I want to thank you guys for all the games we played over the internet; it was fun. To C.M., M.B., C.C., J.C., N.G., L.P., H.S., S.Z., D.S., D.S., thank you all for the happy times we spent through the years. B.L., J, thank you for all those crazy trips we went on. To A.T. thank you for sticking up for me when I was being put down and for always being so nice and funny with me. I just wish we lasted longer than a day ☺. Sports: X-Country 1 yr, B-ball 1 yr, Track 2 yrs, I've had a lot of fun & good experiences on all those sports. I want to thank J.Y., E.D., for helping me keep up in x-country when I lagged behind. To all my friends, I going to miss you guys; we definitely need to be in touch. To all the juniors, sophomores, and freshman don't give up on anything, keep working at it & you will truly succeed if you don't give up.

Sandy- High school has been "interesting." We've had a lot of "interesting" classes together. Our junior prom and the 3 months after that were also "interesting." We've had our ups and downs over "interesting" things, but I wouldn't change anything, well almost anything. M.L. EG, CC, JC, etc . . . "interesting" taste. Come swimming any time, just don't use the tubes. Never change, and keep in touch, love, Jon. Justin- I still can't believe soccer is over. We beat Manchester. Wrestling was, well, much tougher than soccer. I will break 180. Scorpions forever (SM, MK, SG, and everyone else I forgot). Pizza feast.

Lets TP Luc's house. Erin D- I'll kick your hut in mine-sweep any day. Melika- I think that smell must have been BUTTS!!! Beth- I'll see you in the bathroom. Kingston- 10th grade study had nice scenery. Good Luck to all, Jon forget the great times. To my family and all those who inspire me, this is for you. Without your love and support I would never have become the person I am today. To my class, Tootsie was the best. RIP. "A little work a little play. To keep us going- and so good day. A little warmth, a little light. Of love's bestowing- and so good night. A little fun, to match the sorrow. Of each days growing- and so good marrow. A little trust that when we die. We reap our sowing! And so good-bye!" George Du Maurier. It's been a great 4 years, good luck class of 2000!

"Charmanda, Char, Mandogga"

To all of my friends throughout the years. I write this poem, with my heart, soul, and mind, to a person whose been, fun, weird, and kind. A friend who would answer, whenever you called, and who'd pick you up whenever you fall. Loving and charming, always quick with a laugh, this friendship has been an absolute smash. That person is kind, loving, and true, and I count myself as a privileged few. To be your friend, it's been a blast, the time has gone by so fast. And before this poem is over, I'd just like to say, thank-you again for everyday. That you've been my friend, I've enjoyed it so and I'm sorry that I have to go. But life isn't fair, I've learned that before, and I wave one last time as I walk out the door. This isn't good-bye, just a farewell, and on this I will not sadly dwell. For I'll see you again, in someday to come, and we'll laugh again and have some fun. Please don't forget me, I won't forget you, you're one of the special, you're one of the few. This poem will end, but our friendship will live, ask me for anything, I'm willing to give.

It was fun. I don't want to go anywhere anymore. This place was the best, because I got to see my friends everyday. Destruction Derby Go-Karts were great. Shoutz: MCB, ERP, JPH, JMCD, AIA, NA, Cal, MB, HS, LP, SAZ, Marc, Lace, K-Dawga, Mollz, Mandi, hmmm... E, Matty G, DK, MNI3, D & DS, JA, dramas, NC, A McN, Priv, MvB, Pauly, C & CL, MT, JM, Adle, Sasha, Kias. You impacted my life, and know I have a burnt imprint of you all in my head. Ow!! But what helped me the most was: FF, Duke3D, SW, and all the C & C I could handle. D@mn those engineers! With me a piece of serenity dies, and in its place, epic turmoil made of ash and coal ready to fight... yepo. Trust me, and I will show you a masquerade of endless entertainment. Huh?! 4AM bike rides, Dirt Ball Championship! Rock the Casba! I'm Big Daddy! DBZ Rules! Gohan is my hero! When I reach my limit, you'll pay. >:o) "I QUIT!" -Al byby

Mr. Proietti, good golfing. Frazdogga, good chemistry. Priv, K. ROD, Boppa, those business cards are coming. To all the other teachers that influenced my scholastic efforts in GHS, lasting impressions. To Jon and Kate, good luck. Big shout to Mike Tullercash, mad good times. Shark fishing, didn't bring enough cow blood. When we getting to the range? Stacey, you put me through so much crap this life, and it was all worth it. Frickin Sea Donkeys. Another Big one to Mike David, preach the word, man. Bryony, it's all good, let's go bowling. Dena, you've been there through a lot for me, and even after I made the mistake of leavin you alone, you were still there for me. Mike Bond, PVB, Shannon, everyone else who made my life complete in high school, y'all know who you are.

Band 9, 10, 11, 12 & Basketball 10, 11, 12. We've walked the trouhled path together one-by-one, Followed it together towards the setting sun. The sun has set; it's time to leave the path that changed us so, And time to leave the one's behind, the one's who've helped us grow. Something new and wonderful waits within our grasp, And as we pave this strange new path, we won't forget our last. To my family, thank you for heing socials! Billy and Mickey you guys are my father, thanks for looking out and making sure I went to school. Lorraine I love you, 'lil sis! Your the coolest!! Uncle Toby, "Primus RULES", LaLapalooza, etc. Shows ROCK w/Toby! Jared thanks for everything, especially for being a friend, but also a companion. I love you and I wish you well in the future. J.C.-keep scratching, skating, breaking; you're the man. Gia & 'lil Mick grow up safe & smart. N.S. your like a sister. E.K. party on dude! Kira Sky your my raving partner, I love you! M.W.S. & A.D. I love you both. I never thought I was actually going to make it, but I did. And it was all because of my Mom. Thanks!! 2000

there every step of the way. I'll never forget the things you've done to make me who I am today. To mom and dad, you mean the world to me. You've given me everything to succeed and now I hope that I can take all you've given to me and make you proud. I love you both. Jason, even though I always tease you, I hope that you know how much you mean to me. You've always been there to make me laugh. I love you. Lauren, my mini me, you've changed my life so much. I always knew that you'd grow up to be my huddy! I love you. To my little Zoe, you always now how to put me in a good mood. To the class of 2000, my friends, I wish that it all didn't have to end. It's all been fun. Good Luck in the future. I wish that I could say more but I only get 14 lines, so that's it!

A black and white photograph of a group of approximately 15 cheerleaders posing on a staircase. They are arranged in several rows, with some standing on the stairs and others on the ground. They are wearing a variety of casual clothing, including sweaters, blouses, and a striped shirt. In the background, a large sign is visible with the text "GEORGETOWN HIGH SCHOOL" and "BUILDING THE FUTURE THROUGH EDUCATION". The cheerleaders are smiling and looking towards the camera.

A black and white photograph of a young woman sitting on a patterned couch in a library. She is wearing a dark hoodie with white stripes on the sleeves and has her arms crossed. Bookshelves and a table are visible in the background.

Farewell

I sat there looking through past yearbooks for some inspiration: '81, '84, '94, '98 . . . Not a single spark of creativity hit me. I am sorry to inform you this introduction is not monumental, but I assure you that the rest is worth reading.

I came to the Georgetown school system in sixth grade. (A big thanks to Sandy and Waldna for talking to me.) I've really enjoyed these last seven years with all of you. I'm glad I was able to make and share many memories with all of you.

In a few years, we will join the millions of working Americans, waking at five-thirty every morning and slaving for forty hours a week. We will attain the American Dream doing this. The best part, though, will be when we sit down one night, many years from now, and look through our memories. These memories will last for as long as we live, and they will live in this book.

I would like to give a collective "Thank You" on behalf of the entire yearbook staff to Mrs. Clay and Mr. Luca. Without both of you this skeleton crew of a yearbook staff would not have existed.

I would also like to extend my admiration and congratulations to the entire graduating class of 2000. You are the reason for the printed product that you have in your hands now. It is sad to say, but, I may never see many of you again. I wish you all good luck in the future.

Mike van Breda

WILLIAM P. BANNISTER 1963-2000

Mr. Bannister is leaving Georgetown High School this year, after being here for thirty seven years. He will be missed.

I remember having him as a coach for my eighth grade basketball team. I recall sitting in the Penn Brook gym, listening to him teach us the fundamentals of the game. He always had an encouraging word to give, even if we messed up the play. He would never get mad if we lost a game, as long as we gave it our all. He was a great coach and will not be forgotten.

Brett Daly

Mr. Bannister is one of the nicest guys I know. Every time I go into the media center, he is always smiling. He always takes the time to say hello and ask how you are doing. I have known Mr. Bannister for about five years. Each time that I have interacted with him, it has been a pleasant experience. He was always willing to help out and enjoyed doing so.

A great memory that I have of him is when I used to work at Dunkin Donuts. He came in one day and ordered his coffee wrong. He messed up while saying his order, and ordered it backwards.

"I'll have a regular cream with coffee and sugar."

We laughed so hard when we realized what he said.

Jenna Lafata

It is widely known throughout Georgetown High School that Mr. Bannister is the "Mr. Fixit" of the school. When there is a problem with a T.V., V.C.R., or any other electronic device, Mr. Bannister would always know what to do.

One day in Black and White Photography, I was learning how to use the camera. I was examining the ancient machine when I noticed a weird looking black thing.

"What's this?" I exclaimed as I poked my finger through the shutter, completely mangling it. I told Mr. Luca the truth, that I had found the camera that way! He brought the camera to Mr. Bannister. Luckily, Mr. Bannister knew exactly how to fix a damaged shutter, and we got the camera back in perfect working condition within fifteen minutes. If it were not for Mr. Bannister's knowledge and skill, the photography classes would have one less camera to work with.

"FAMILY VALUES"

Your Family Can Achieve Black Belt Excellence Together!"

In a world where families have less time for each other, here's one activity that brings them all together. Many parents who have enrolled their children in Martial Arts have decided to join in. It's a terrific source of fun, togetherness and family spirit. For Dad, it's great for physical fitness. For Mom, it's great for flexibility and self defense. Kids develop self discipline, courtesy and respect for law and order. Come and meet some of many families studying Martial Arts. You'll love it!
